

	Autumn Term	Spring Term	Summer Term
Year 12	Curriculum and Skills: Content and skill development to meet the AO1 and AO2 requirements for AQA Philosophy in the following areas: Paper 1 - Epistemology What is knowledge?; Perception as a source of knowledge – direct realism Paper 1 - Moral Philosophy Introduction to Ethics; Utilitarianism; Kantian Ethics; Aristotelian Virtue Ethics	Curriculum and Skills: Content and skill development to meet the AO1 and AO2 requirements for AQA Philosophy in the following areas: Paper 1 - Epistemology Perception as a source of knowledge – indirect realism; Reason as a source of knowledge – Innatism and Empiricist responses Paper 1 - Moral Philosophy Applied ethics; Meta-Ethics - Moral Realism and Anti-Realism	Curriculum and Skills: Content and skill development to meet the AO1 and AO2 requirements for AQA Philosophy in the following areas: Paper 1 - Epistemology Reason as a source of knowledge – The intuition and deduction thesis; Limits of knowledge and consolidation of paper 1 Paper 1 - Moral Philosophy Completion of Meta-Ethics and consolidation of paper 1 Introduction to Paper 2 Introduction to the concepts of God and Dualism
	Assessment: Informal assessment of in-class contributions Variety of examination question types completed for each module taught, both during extended study and timed practice in class	Assessment: Mock examination (January) Informal assessment of in-class contributions Variety of examination question types completed for each module taught, both during extended study and timed practice in class	Assessment: End of Year 1 examination (June) Informal assessment of in-class contributions Variety of examination question types completed for each module taught, both during extended study and timed practice in class
Year 13	Curriculum and Skills: Content and skill development to meet the AO1 and AO2 requirements for AQA Philosophy in the following areas: Paper 2 - Metaphysics of God Concept of God; Does God exist? Paper 2 - Metaphysics of Mind Dualism – substance and property; Physicalism – Behaviourism and Type identify theory	Curriculum and Skills: Content and skill development to meet the AO1 and AO2 requirements for AQA Philosophy in the following areas: Paper 2 - Metaphysics of God Religious Language Paper 2 - Metaphysics of Mind Physicalism – Functionalism and Eliminative materialism All papers - Commence revision of content and skills required for final examinations	Curriculum and Skills: Content and skill development to meet the AO1 and AO2 requirements for AQA Philosophy in the following areas: All papers - Continued revision of content and skills required for the final examinations
	Assessment: Informal assessment of in-class contributions Variety of examination question types completed for each module taught, both during extended study and timed practice in class	Assessment: Mock examination (March) Informal assessment of in-class contributions Variety of examination question types completed for each module taught, both during extended study and timed practice in class	Assessment: Informal assessment of in-class contributions Variety of examination question types completed for each module taught, both during extended study and timed practice in class